

Coosa Valley Tennis Assoc.

This was not CVTA's first Black Light Tennis event, and the fun definitely never ends! Fitted in their best neon attire, players had a blast playing doubles and mixed doubles.

DISTRICT TWO

Clarke-Oconee Tennis Assoc.

This was a new event hosted by COTA where players competed round robin style, then moved up or down the river based on a win or loss.

DISTRICT THREE

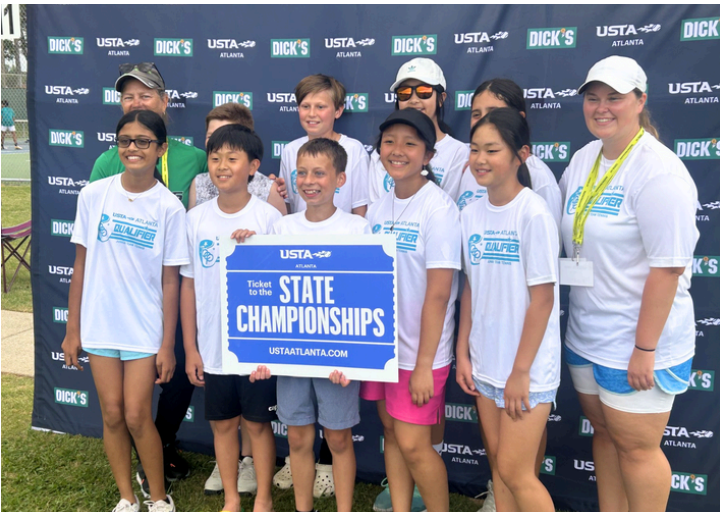

AYTEF

AYTEF's annual Block Party has become a pillar event in the community and brings together a variety of groups like minority youth, high school and college tennis teams, volunteers, and local families.

Atlanta Team Tennis Assoc.

No better way to share the love of tennis than going on tour! ATTA hosted open play sessions at Bitsy Grant and Piedmont Park in the month of May to celebrate NTM.

USTA Atlanta

USTA Atlanta held the Junior State Qualifier at Buford City Park, and 8 teams have earned their way to the State Championship. No rain delays stopping this crew!

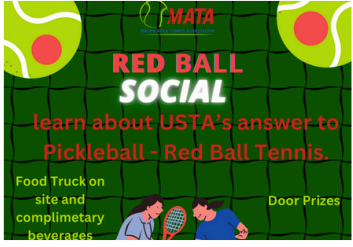

DISTRICT FOUR

CORTA

CORTA hosted a Corporate Team Tennis season which included 14 teams and more than 170 players. Players had a groovy time, and the successful event brought together volunteers, families, CORTA sponsors, and new friends!

DISTRICT FIVE

Macon Area Tennis Assoc.

To celebrate NTM, MATA hosted a Red Ball Social which also helped kick off the 18&Over State Championship that weekend. Players were introduced to a game that blends both tennis and pickleball.

DISTRICT SIX

CSRATA

CSRATA brought parents and children together at their Parent-Child Tennis event! This event saw juniors, parents, cousins, and grandparents on the courts having a blast.

MACH Academy

No better way to kick-off NTM than breaking ground on a new court resurfacing project! MACH Academy hosted over 70 people at their first NTM event with tennis, pickleball, cornhole, and more.

DISTRICT SEVEN

Mitchell Co. Tennis Assoc.

Mitchell Co. had a great time at their Open Play NTM event with good friends, good food...and of course, tennis!

Bainbridge Tennis Assoc.

Bainbridge hosted a Sunday Fun-day for tennis and pickleball enthusiasts while also collecting donation items for DFACS.

DISTRICT EIGHT

Golden Isles Tennis

GIT celebrated NTM in downtown Brunswick and shared the love of tennis with booth visitors. The organization even included a raffle for some NTM merch!
