JUNE 2025

DISTRICT 1

Etowah Valley Tennis Association

When EVTA didn't have enough 2.5 ladies to form a full team, they got creative and launched a 2.5/low 3.0 Quads instead! Over six weeks of competitive and supportive play, each participant showed impressive improvement—and the fun was undeniable.

Cherokee Tennis Association

The Cherokee Tennis Association celebrated National Tennis Month by joining the Healthy Kids Race Series, where League Coordinator Will Ku handed out free swag and shared league information with enthusiastic kids and parents.

Mountain Tennis Association

Congratulations to Mountain Tennis Association! During National Tennis Month, they received a formal proclamation from their county leadership supporting the great work of promoting the sport throughout the north Georgia mountain communities.

Clark Oconee Tennis Association

Happy Anniversary! COTA celebrated their 25th Anniversary in May (just in time for National Tennis Month!) They held a great event filled with food, drinks, tennis and giveaways!

DISTRICT 3

Southern Crescent Tennis Association

SCTA started National Tennis Month off right with a tennis social thanking their captains and co-captains!

Columbus Regional Tennis Association

It was a full month of fun in Columbus! Throughout National Tennis Month, CORTA offered up 5 different events from Red Ball to Demo Day to Cardio Tennis!

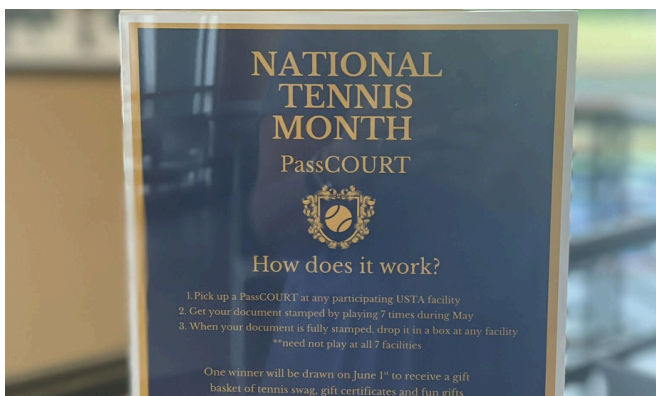

Chattahoochee Area Tennis Association

Triples, anyone? CHATA players got in on the Triples action during National Tennis Month—and had a blast doing it! If you haven't tried this fast-paced, fun-filled format yet, do it!

DISTRICT 5

Macon Area Tennis Association

To inspire Middle Georgians to play tennis, MATA created PASSCOURT—the May tennis passport! Players picked one up at any of 7 participating Macon-area USTA facilities, played 7 times, and were entered to win a prize-packed tennis gift basket.

DISTRICT 6

Central Savannah River Area Tennis Association

CSRATA kicked off OPEN PLAY NIGHT! What better way to celebrate National Tennis Month than with fun, friends, and free tennis?

MACH Academy

Nine participants from MACH Academy, Inc. took part in the 2025 Leadership Camp at John Drew Smith Tennis Center in Macon, GA. They were challenged through a full day of tennis, trivia, STEM, and leadership activities—growing both on and off the court!

DISTRICT 7

Tennis Valdosta

For the second year in a row, Tennis Valdosta partnered with the Valdosta chapter of Jack and Jill to host a fun-filled youth clinic—welcoming everyone from the tiniest tots to seasoned young players. It was a swingin' good time on the courts, full of learning, laughter, and love for the game!

Mitchell County Tennis Association

It was a complete tennis court transformation in Mitchell County thanks to USTA's Tennis Venue Services team. They work with facilities by providing grants, technical assistance, project review and recommendations to improve courts across the country.

Golden Isles Tennis

To celebrate National Tennis Month, GIT hosted the Golden Isles Hardcourt Championships—a tournament that served up more than just great tennis! With food trucks, a racket donation drive, and a strong focus on supporting youth tennis, it was a fun-filled event for a great cause

Savannah Area Tennis Association

SATA had some great representation at the 18 & Over League State Championships in Rome and Macon!
